WELCOME

WELCOME to Davidson, friend, who openeth this book! Welcome to her lovely lawns and ancient groves; to her spacious stadium, her athletes and their prowess; to her halls where men are grown and cultured for the service of the world. Welcome to the helpfulness of our faculty, strong and understanding, and to our fellowship of happy men. And welcome, too, to the life of our truly great alumnus, Woodrow Wilson. On the pages which divide the sections of this book you will see him at interesting moments of his career. Welcome, friend, to the inspiration which is Davidson!

DEDICATION

IT was a happy day for Davidson when, looking out into the world of gifted leaders for one who should become her President, her eye fell upon one who had been in love with her for years.

And his love for his Alma Mater had been no sentimental dream. Loaded down with heavy responsibilities as pastor of a large city church, or as professor at Union Seminary, or as President of the Assembly's Training School, he had pushed his other duties aside again and again for her sake. For her he had traveled many miles, had delivered many addresses, and had undertaken many interviews, so great has been the devotion he has maintained to his beloved college in North Carolina.

In appreciation of these many years of loving service so freely bestowed, and in appreciation of the greater Davidson that is to be under his vigorous whole time leadership—we dedicate this book to

WOODROW WILSON

IT is refreshing to the ploughman to see in vision the waving harvest fields. It means much to men enmeshed in the prosaic present of college demands to recall the many men who have passed through Davidsonian discipline to find themselves forceful and fruitful personalities.

We here present a preëminent example of Davidson's gifts to the State, the Nation, and the World—Woodrow Wilson, Governor of the State of New Jersey, twice President of the United States of America, and Creator of the League of Nations of Mankind.

Woodrow Wilson is more to us than our most distinguished alumnus. In common with an increasing company of the citizens of the world we honor his practical idealism, his daring faith in the very highest ends, and his indefatigable labors for their attainment. In the intimaey to which the brotherhood of Davidson's sons admits us we twine the laurel of his far-reaching aecomplishments with the hopes of our own lives for worthy service to mankind.

FORTUNATE those whose enjoyment of Davidson's lights and shadows and of the glorious company of her sons is not limited to four brief years as is ours!

Yet we too shall be fortunate! For we Seniors plan to vanquish that fate which would separate us from Davidson. By this Book we shall maintain the bond. If we must go hence, we shall carry you, Alma Mater, not only in our hearts but before our very eyes.

Yea, by this Book we do defy the very teeth of time: for through these pages we shall ever look upon each other and our fair friends, each clad in the bright beauty of unchanging youth.

THE TRUSTEES

DAVIDSON COLLEGE is incorporated under the laws of North Carolina as "The Trustees of Davidson College." The trustees constitute the legislative body of the college and in them is vested final authority in all matters pertaining to the school. The trustees are elected by the Presbyteries of North Carolina and Florida, and by the Alumni Association. The Presbyteries of North Carolina are entitled to thirty-one members; the Presbyteries of Florida, to eight; and the Alumni Association, to twelve. The term of membership is four years.

Meetings of the trustees are held twice a year, in February, and during Commencement week. An executive committee composed of nine members meets on call, several times a year.

Officers of the trustees are: Mr. R. A. Dunn, President; Mr. S. A. Robinson, Secretary; and Mr. F. L. Jackson, Treasurer.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

A Southern business man was recently quoted as saying that the Davidson men with whom he had come in contact during his business experience had been unusually successful in acclimating themselves to practically any business situation and had been marked by their honesty and integrity.

Without doubt this attribute is due in no small measure to the system of student government found at Davidson. Davidson's Honor System is the culmination of the traditions and high ideals of the college, embedded and perpetuated in each man. The school's student government tends to develop in every student initiative and the ability to assume responsibility, together with complete honesty.

The governing board of students, elected annually by vote of the four classes, is the Student Council. This body is composed of seven men from the Senior class, four from the Junior class, three from the Sophomore class, and one from the Freshman class. There are also elected by the student body, two Vice-Presidents from the Junior class, and a Secretary and Treasurer from the Sophomore class.

The Student Council at Davidson holds a unique position in comparison to similar student groups of other colleges. It has an unusual amount of governing power and control. The Council's main power lies in its jurisdiction over cases arising from infringements of the Honor System.

Its other duties range from supervision of elections to the appointment of heads of various student boards. Infractions of the Honor System are few, due to the high morale and coöperation of the students.

Officers for the past year were: C. H. Goodykoontz, President; D. S. King and R. W. Gorrell, Vice-Presidents; and C. M. Norfleet, Secretary-Treasurer.

classmen. It is more than a disciplinary group, for in many cases it offers friendly and helpful advice. One of its important functions is that of prescribing at the end of each year the rules and regulations by which the succeeding Freshman class shall be governed.

The Court is appointed annually by the Student Council and is composed of a judge and seven members, representing the three upper classes.

It is the duty of the members of the higher classes of the student body to report violations of Freshmen regulations, or to recommend that certain men be summoned for some needed advice. In deciding cases and in passing judgment, each member of the Court has an equal vote. Any decision rendered by the Court is fully supported by the Student Council.

ESTABLISHED in 1923, the Court of Control has continued as an active and influential body. Just before the creation of this judiciary group, hazing was abolished at Davidson. Needless to say, a reaction was inevitable, necessitating the formation of a governing body.

It is the duty of this body, to guide the Freshmen in their relations to the upper-

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

THERE are two fundamental principles that govern the writing of a class history, especially one of a Senior class. The foremost of these is that the document can not be original—even the most enthusiastic and optimistic of would-be historians have ultimately had to admit the painful but undeniable truth of this statement. If it turns out to be original, its writer must necessarily conclude that his product will have to be classed under another head; it will not measure up to the specifications of a class history.

The second of these essential rules is that the history can not be one of facts, presented as such—cold, bare, and without at least a tinge of feeling that will make them typify more accurately and picture more vividly the sentiments which a Senior class history must embody because of its very nature, if for no other reason.

Certain things have happened during our stay here that warrant at least brief mentioning, and which we are proud to include in our history. The following paragraphs will attempt to serve for this purpose.

At the end of our Sophomore year, New Chambers had been completed, and was officially dedicated at commencement. At the same time Dr. W. L. Lingle was chosen as President of Davidson, taking the chair vacated by former President W. J. Martin, who had served in that capacity long and faithfully.

In the fields of ex-curricular activity, including athletics, Y.M.C.A. work, publications, debating, musical organizations, dramatics, etc., members of the present graduating class have attained, in number and quality, at least the average reached by any class. No astounding feats have been accomplished, but, on the other hand, the class, as a whole, has been actively and productively at work for four years.

The above would apply to scholastic attainments were it not for one member of the class. But we feel that we are justifiably proud of Dean Rusk, one of the most outstanding men of the class, who received an appointment as Rhodes Scholar over keen competition. In so doing he has brought an honor to the class of 1931 that no other at Davidson has claimed for a number of years.

But the uppermost thing in the minds of the hundred or more of us who have survived to be awarded the coveted sheepskin, is the Spirit of Davidson that we are proud to claim as one of our valuable assets. It is something that is in itself intangible, but which, at the same time, is composed of many tangible qualities.

When a student first enters Davidson he hears continually of such words as Honor, Courtesy, Friendship, Loyalty, Christian Manhood, and others similar to these in their scope of meaning. They are vague for a while; but this soon changes to a realization that they are real, living expressions that signify the qualities embodied in what we have learned to call the Davidson Spirit. They soon grip every one who allows himself to fall in line with those who have made up their minds to live up to Davidson ideals. In work, play, or whatever association one has with his fellow-students, this Spirit is paramount in governing the actions of Davidson men, so that they are worthy to call her their Alma Mater, and are prepared to go out into their future life's calling as true Christian gentlemen.

Thus it is that anyone analyzing the true significance of "Davidson Spirit" must realize that, as a member of the Davidson student body, he must aim high, in order to justifiably call this "spirit" his, and to be able to exemplify it after he is no longer under its influence on the campus. It is a goal worthy of striving for.

And so, it is not, in the final analysis, our individual or collective attainments that make us proud to walk up and get our diplomas, but it is because we have proven worthy of receiving them from an institution that we have learned to deeply love and respect for what it stands for, and for what it has imparted to those of us who have come under its guidance.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

A depression in most fields has been prevalent this year, but not so with the class of '32. These young men, known as Juniors, have continued to press forward. Not only have they kept alive the traditional Davidson spirit in these days of mental and financial gloom, but they have given practical evidence of the fruits of this spirit in both academic and athletic pursuits.

History consists of the record of the lives of men regardless of whether they have progressed or retrogressed. The record of this class, however, must be distinguished from the ordinary in the same degree as its accomplishments have been extraordinary. Lest the author's lack of ability in the art of recording lead to any misapprehension as to the surpassing worth of his classmates, we shall call this writing the Annales Superiores of 1932.

The primary interest of Davidson is directed towards the intellectual. Hence it is fitting to say that the class of '32 has been above the average in this department of college activity. Since our Freshman year we have succeeded in maintaining a high scholastic standing—one of which no member of '32 need ever be ashamed. Proof of this lies in the significant fact that practically every man in this class expects to leave Davidson in 1932 with the coveted diploma.

Since our Sophomore year, the class of '32 has given more than its share of men to Varsity Athletic teams. All these representatives have proven their worth as athletes through the past two years, and have succeeded in bringing greater glory to the standards of their Alma Mater.

The branches of college life mentioned above are but two of many. We have neither the time nor the inclination for imposing arrays of statistics, but, such would prove conclusively that '32 has helped to develop the mental, moral, and physical life on the campus. If it be true that the past is father to the future, then we confidently predict that Davidson will always have reason for pride in the class of 1932.

CAME the dawn of September 10, 1929. An envious sun glowered down over Mecklenburg's hills to see 220 of the "South's Finest" troop in to join the ranks of Davidson. Feverish sentiment and enthusiasm soon developed into an epidemic of numerals, which broke out in profusion. Our achievements? Innumerable. A record number made the Honor Roll and the Reporters' Club. A large portion of the orchestra and Dramatic Club personnel came from '33. Many track, wrestling, football, and basketball stars were made, and we won the inter-class athletic competition easily.

At the election of officers after Christmas, E. B. Peabody was chosen President; J. B. Clark, Vice-President; and J. D. Enochs, Secretary and Treasurer.

Soph Day formed the closing chapter of our eventful first year. Our caps had shrunk so much that we well deserved to burn them, and receive our new epithet, "Sophs."

Approaching the second great mile stone in our college careers, we again pause to consider the achievements of the class. Many varsity letters have been made by our men in the major sports. A new publication, The Yowl, has appeared, and with it considerable talent, much of it coming from our class, including its Art and Poetry editors. In these, and in many other phases of social, religious, scholastic, literary, and athletic activity, the class as a whole has shown gratifying willingness and capability. Under the competent guidance of its officers, the class has assumed its responsibility as an important and integral part of the Davidson student body. And with the indomitable spirit of '33, we can ever look forward to greater and nobler things.

Our Class Officers are: C. M. Norfleet, President; W. A. Mebane, Jr., Vice-President; J. R. Howard, Secretary and Treasurer; and D. D. McBryde, Class Historian.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

WHEN that period known as the Orientation of Freshmen had come to a close last September 12th, the expression on each of our faces showed that we were rightfully proud to be a part of such an institution as Davidson. Then, the well meaning, fatherly upperclassmen in order to keep the boys of '34 from becoming chesty, began thoughtfully to shower us with such privileges as carrying laundry, wearing Frosh caps and cute little green buttons on our uniforms, etc., etc. (?). But each of these things did their bit towards keeping our feet on the ground.

However, in order to show everybody that we wanted to be true Wildcats, we were not long in organizing our football squad, electing Julian West as captain with Reid Brown as alternate-captain. Due to injuries to both of these men in the early part of the season as well as to several other men on the squad, the Wildkittens took the small end of the scores in most games.

After football season was over three more activities were offered to us—basketball, wrestling, and dodging snowballs. You see, the weather-man played us a rather dirty trick by giving us more snow during the Winter than has been had in many years; and there is a quaint old custom prevalent here that red caps are a good bull's eye. But in basketball and wrestling we had a much better chance and made a finer showing. Bob Evans, captain, led his quintette all over the court inspiring them to play a truly flashy type of basketball; and the scores showed it too. Wrestling season also found many men anxious to accept the challenge of the mat. When the grapplers had picked

Bernard Gilmer to captain the team, they began a hard schedule of meets and turned in a good percentage of victories.

It was at this time that we Freshmen faced the first hazard universally felt on the Hill—examinations. A few of us went the way of all Fresh who will not study. The rest of us passed in fine style. Moreover, when the smoke had cleared away and the grades had been averaged we found that we had five men on the honor roll, which meant that they had averaged better than ninety-five in all subjects. They are: Joseph Dill, John A. McGeachy, Rufus Morrow, W. M. (Wee) Thompson, and W. T. (Tee) Thompson.

From wrestling season to the baseball season very little of importance happened except that thirteen of us were given bids to the Reporters' Club. The baseball team showed fine form as many horsehide swatting aspirants were out working for berths. At the time of this going to the press the captain had not been elected.

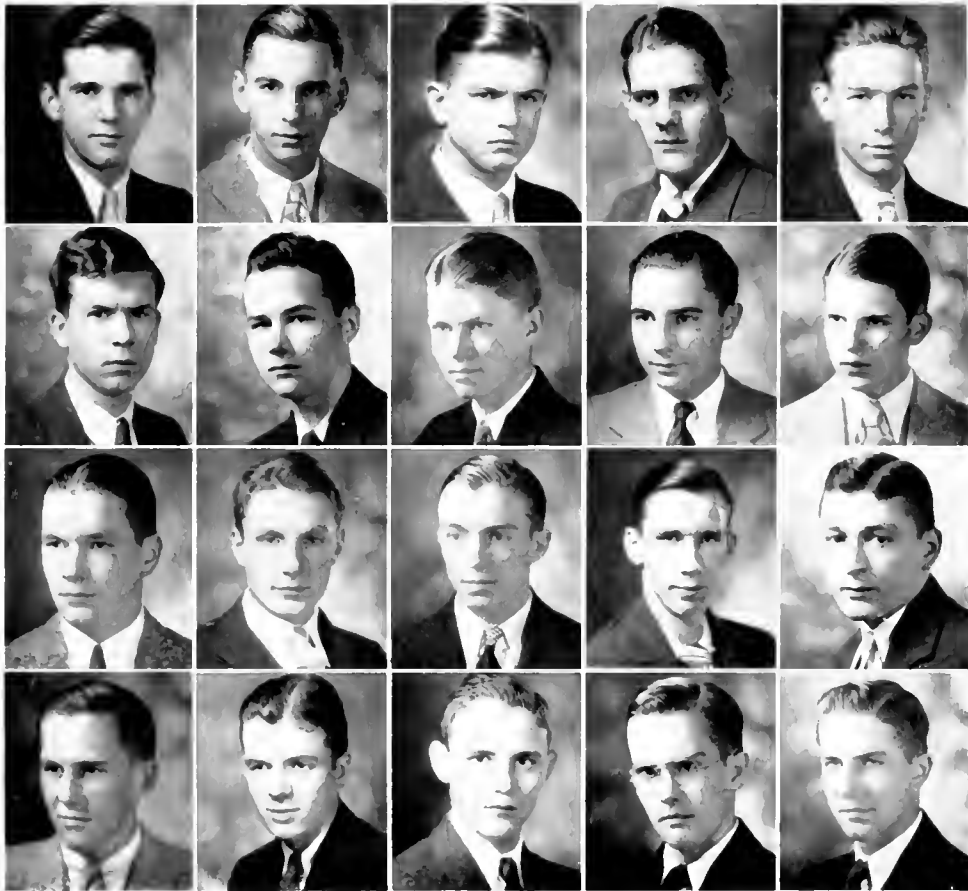

In regard to our class government, we decided to refrain from electing a class president for the Freshman year, and left the running of the class to the Court of Control. The Court consequently allowed us to elect our officers for the rising Sophomore class during the latter part of March, giving these officers the privilege of running the class the remainder of the Fresh year too.

Barron G. Collier—or was it Cleopatra?—said that it pays to advertise. Call it egotism if you want to, but all we ask for is about three more years and we lads of '34 hope to be good advertisements for old Davidson.

WILSON IN ATHLETICS

ATHLETICS

"All physical bodies are the tools of the soul."

—Aristotle.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

ATHLETICS AT DAVIDSON

TO determine the strength of any athletic team the won and loss columns of its season's record are usually consulted. For the casual reader this is sufficient; but for one who has a particular interest in a team a deeper probing is necessary. In this search certain things, more or less intangible, are brought to light and it is by using these attributes, as well as the percentage of games won, as a standard, that the real worth of a team is established.

Thus, the fight that Davidson teams exhibit against almost overwhelming odds, their spirit of never-say-die, the clean sportsmanship that each Wildcat invariably exemplifies, their whole-hearted battle in every contest, no matter what it costs, and their ever-present determination to win when a victory is possible in a way that is open and on the level—these, as no

W. B. Goodson, President

QUIPS AND CRANKS

COACHING STAFF

statistical facts could ever do, explain why every Wildcat team bears such a name and rightly enjoys such a reputation.

But this is not to be taken as an apology for the records of Wildcat teams, even in a statistical way, for none is called for. Even a much larger school than Davidson could be proud of such an athletic record, and still prouder of the spirit that Wildcat teams exhibit.

The upbuilding of this reputation is due in a large part to a very able and loyal staff, consisting of Coaches Younger, Tilson, Laird, Unger, and Capt. Pritchett, Athletic Advisor. These men have, through their contact with Davidson athletes, and by acting as examples to them, inspired them to attain the heights that they have in the world of sports and, in so doing, to bring honor and glory to Davidson.

Likewise, the work of the Athletic Council, consisting of certain students and a Faculty Advisor, has supplemented that of the coaching staff in achieving these ends.

The 1930 football season opened with a team that had two of the greatest assets possible—experience and ability. Comprised almost entirely of Juniors and Seniors who had in previous seasons showed what they were capable of doing, the first string eleven took the field a favorite in the majority of contests but a competent though less-inexperienced squad of reserves also proved an important factor.

Davidson 12, N. C. State, 0

Playing their first night game, in Greensboro, against a somewhat mystery team from N. C. State, Davidson defeated its first opponent in the Big Five by a two-touchdown margin. The consistent punting of Thad Brock and a beautiful run by McCall for 37 yards to score the Wildcats' first tally were the highlights of the contest.

Davidson 21, Erskine 0

The Wildcats took the field against the Seeders expecting a much closer score than resulted, but the Red and Black machine piled up 21 points before they could be stopped.

Davidson 0, Duke 12

Davidson had not been scored on and had defeated one Big Five team in a decisive manner, so they went to Durham to face the Duke Blue Devils, favored to win. But Duke had come to life, after a bad defeat at the hands of the University of South Carolina, while Davidson elected to take a rest. The result was 12-0 in favor of the Methodists, with Brewer and Murray leading their attack.

Davidson 6, Citadel 0

Davidson was sore because of the loss to Duke; Citadel hadn't forgotten a 7-6 defeated handed them by the Wildcats in '29; both were inherently scrappy elevens; result—one of the hardest fought games of the season with the Wildcats coming out on the big end of a 6-0 score, due chiefly to Joe McCall taking advantage of an early scoring chance. "Pop" Wilson shone for Citadel. It was an upset for Davidson, to avenge the loss to Duke.

Davidson 19, F. P. I., 20

Tritely but truly it was one of those games you read about—first one team in the lead, and then the other, with the game hanging in the air until the whistle blew. The toe of Captain Hooper finally decided the one-point margin of victory for the gobblers although, as a whole, the Wildcat eleven out-played the visitors.

Following the heart-breaking loss to V. P. I., of the week before, the Wildcats journeyed to Virginia, favored to beat their ancient foe, the V. M. I. But the same sort of relapse was suffered as that against Duke and before the Red and Black eleven could snap out of it the game was over and they were on the wrong end of a 6-0 score, having failed to take advantage of scoring opportunities.

A Wofford rally was checked and the score later increased to 13 points against the South Carolinians.

The fierce attacks of Davidson's Mighty Men of the Backfield kept the ball deep in Carolina territory most of the time, carrying it to their 6, 11, and 14-yard lines successively. After Carolina had scored on a pass, the 'Cats came back to tally in the second period, following a beautiful 53-yard run by Don McQueen over tackle, to put the ball in scoring distance. Capt. Undefeated by a Wildeat eleven for nine years and outweighing them 16 pounds to the man, a powerful Demon Deacon team took the field against a fast, light and serappy Davidson machine, the former a slight favorite to win. VARSITY BASKETBALL

WITH three regulars reporting for duty at the beginning of the basketball season, Coach Younger had an unusually strong nucleus around which to build what proved to be one of the best Wildeat Quintets of recent years. Captain Bill Goodson at guard, Dean Rusk and Jim Proctor at forward, all Seniors, had seen consistent service during the 1930 season, and were ready for duty when practice was called for the 1931 schedule. Besides these three, Grier Martin, Doc Mathis, Juniors, and Boots Wilson, Senior, had also a considerable amount of playing time to their credit for the past season. Bruce Peabody, Skinny Pierce, Mac Manson and Harry Boucher, Sophomores, who had seen action on last year's Fresh squad rounded out the prospects for the year.

The result was that the first six opponents were downed successively, among them N. C. State, and Carolina, two games that Wildeat followers hardly dared to hope would be victories.

The Carolina game was the most thrilling of the season. The two teams were evenly matched, and the score see-sawed back and forth until the last when Davidson had exhibited some familiar fighting spirit to creep ahead to a one-point lead. The game was about over, and its outcome very doubtful, but the 'Cats were playing heads up ball and the final score was 18-17 in their favor. This put them into first position among Big Five teams.

Skinny Pierce was lost on account of scholastic standing, so Martin went to center and Mathis took his position as regular forward. This, coupled with a general let-up, resulted in three straight losses. Things looked better when Carolina was again defeated, 30-28, but State avenged her former loss by downing the 'Cats 30-23. Sleepy Goodson now suffering with a bad ankle was unable to play except for a few minutes in the Duke game in Charlotte. This was in reality a championship game, and the Wildeats fought with this in mind, but were never able to rout the Blue Devils.

Following this the Wake Forest Deacons met the Cats and staged a comeback to down them in an exciting contest.

There remained only the South Carolina trip on the schedule. Crippled, as they were, the Davidson five dropped two on this tour to the College of Charleston and the Citadel. The other, with the University of South Carolina was won, by the score of 35-26. Dean Rusk had his eye on the basket in this game and they were unable to stop him.

AS baseball practice opened up in early Spring, the loss by graduation in June, 1930, of three outstanding members of the battery, Captain "Doc" Kugler, "Doc" Henderson and John McInnis, was keenly felt, as they had been largely responsible for quite a few Wildcat victories that resulted from their brilliant twirling.

Comparatively inexperienced material, therefore, was offered Coaches Younger and Laird for the twirling position, as no pitchers were among the following lettermen who reported for practice: Infielders—Bernhardt, Goodson, Proctor; catcher—Armfield (Captain); outfielders—Mathis and Covington, Pearce and Bailey, left-handers, and members of last year's fresh nine, and Thompson, leftlander, and Croker, righthander, completed the list of prospective pitchers. Of these, Pearce, got off to the best start, but early in the season sustained a foot injury that prevented him from participating in further contests.

The 'Cats journeyed to Guilford for the first regular game, where they were turned back by a 5-2 score. Croker started the game, but after allowing the Quakers eight hits in about five innings, Bailey was sent to his relief.

On April 3 Elon was met at Burlington in a game that was full of errors, Davidson being charged with seven and Elon with six. The result was again in favor of the opponents, the score being 10-7.

These two losses were sustained away from home, and doubtless the team felt the absence of any backing on the part of the student body. This was made evident when Elon came here for a return game on April 9th and bowed to the home team in a slugging contest by the score of 15-8. Mathis and Proctor, with three hits out of four times up, led the 'Cats' offensive. The former's double and triple, along with a single, constituted the best hitting of the day.

April 13th found the Wake Forest nine on Richardson field, ready to meet Davidson in the latter's first Big Five contest.

A few days later Lefty Thompson twirled a great game to let down Lenoir-Rhyne 6-1, allowing but five hits. Jim Proctor connected for a triple and home run to account for four of Davidson's runs.

Guilford met the 'Cats again on April 17th and found Croker and Bailey the second time to chalk up a 6-2 win.

VARSITY TRACK

THE first regular track meet was scheduled for March 28th with N. C. State, to be staged on Richardson Field. Continuous rainy weather, however, necessitated calling this off entirely, as it would have been practically impossible to run some of the events under such conditions.

On April 2 the Trackmen journeyed to Furman for the first meet and came out on the big end of an 88-38 score. The 'Cats won 10 of the 14 first places, Furman annexing these positions in the 440 and 880 runs, and the shot putt and javelin. George, of Davidson, with wins in both the hurdle events and a tie for first place in the high jump, was high scorer of the day. Fleagle, winner of both the 100-yard dash and the 220, totaled 10 points to take second position in the scoring list.

The next regular meet was staged on Richardson Field, April 11, against the powerful Duke University outfit. No one ventured to foretell the outcome of this contest with any degree of accuracy, because both teams were recognized as rating among the best in this section. The score see-sawed back and forth until the last event, the broad jump, which was to determine the winner of the day. Fulmer of Duke, on his first try, stretched the tape to 23' 1" to win the meet for the Blue Devils. McCall and Flinn of Davidson won second and third, respectively, but this still left the Wildcats three points short of a victory. Duke got eight first places to Davidson's six. Brownlee of Duke, with 13 points, was high scorer of the day. These resulted from winning first place in the 100 and 220, and second in the 220 low hurdles. Billy Flinn, Sophomore and comparatively inexperienced, won the Pole Vault and set a new school record by clearing the bar in beautiful style at 11' 4", breaking the old record by 1". "Soup" Brannon, Junior, set another Davidson record by establishing a new time of 10 min.-7.6 sec. for the two-mile run. This bettered the record set by himself last year by 12 seconds.

On April 15th the Wake Forest Trackmen invaded Richardson Field with determination to continue their winning streak over the Red and Black teams. But they were denied this, and in a big way. The final score was $98\frac{1}{3}$ to $27\frac{1}{3}$ in favor of the Wildcats. Taking 13 out of 14 first places, the 'Cats were complete masters for the afternoon. "Soup" Brannon again was in the limelight as he broke his second record for this season. This time he did the mile run in 4 min., 38.8 seconds, bettering the old Davidson record, held since 1921, by 2.2 seconds.

Three days later, on April 18th, S. C. University was met on Richardson Field, and again the 'Cats were victors. This time the score was also large— $89\frac{1}{2}$ to $36\frac{1}{2}$. The 'Cats took all but three first places and tied for one of these.

After tying the V. M. I. Cadets 63 all, the Wildcats journeyed to Greensboro to annex 3rd place in the annual state meet, and close the 1931 season.

VARSIITY WRESTLING

COACH "Doc" Unger, recent graduate of the University of Indiana, and stellar wrestler in the unlimited class during his stay at that institution, took charge of the candidates for the Wildeat wrestling squad soon after discharging his duties as assistant freshman football coach.

Led by Captain "Pie" Conway, last year's State Champion in the 165-pound class, several letter men formed a strong nucleus around which Coach Unger built up a more formidable team than is indicated by the results. Matches were lost sometimes by large scores, it is true, but individual bouts in these meets were in a number of cases lost by a slight margin after a heart-breaking fight.

Captain Conway was the most consistent winner on the squad, chalking up four wins to his credit against two losses. Gorham scored two wins out of six tries to rank as second high scorer, while Taylor, with a fall to his credit and Cowan likewise credited with five points tied for third place. Preston, Vick and Tyack each had one match to their credit, won on time, which tied them for fourth place.

The first match of the season was against N. C. State on January 31, after about two months of practice and workouts had permitted Coach Unger to round his men into shape. Taylor threw his opponent in this match, while Conway, Vick, Gorham and Preston won time advantages on theirs to give Davidson a 17-13 victory, in which was the most exciting and only victorious match of the season for the Wildeats.

A trip into Virginia proved disastrous, judging solely from the viewpoint of scores. Against the Washington and Lee squad, Captain Conway was the only Wildeat participant to come out on top. The time advantage won by him gave Davidson her entire score for the match, 3 points, while the home team was running up a total of 31. Looked at from the size of the opponent's score this was the worst loss of the year for the 'Cats.

Then on February 7, the V. M. I. Cadets shutout the visitors 30-0.

Duke came out winner in the next match, Conway and Gorham accounting for Davidson's six points. Cowan was credited with a fall against Carolina to tally five points for Davidson.

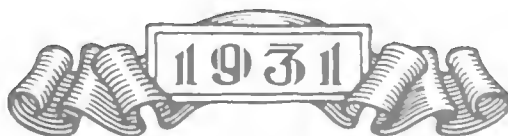

V. P. I. met the Wildcat team at Davidson for the last match, and won a contest that was far closer than the score indicates. Conway threw his man and Tyack got time on his to give the Wildcats 8 points.

The team consisted of the following members in their respective classes, "D" following a name indicating that a letter was awarded to that man:

THREE letter-men, Captain W. L. Poe, E. Z. DuBose, and S. B. McLean returned to form a strong nucleus around which a formidable tennis team was built up for the 1930-31 season. M. L. Roddey, D. G. Calder and C. F. Myers, by virtue of victories over other candidates, completed the six-man team.

The netmen opened the season last fall by defeating Wake Forest in a decisive manner 8-0.

The two first matches of the Spring were against two of Davidson's strongest foes—Carolina and Duke. The former gave the Wildcats their worst licking in this sport in many years, blanking them 8-0. The Blue Devils came out on the big end of a 6-3 score.

Although members of the Davidson racketeers managed to reach the semi-finals in the state tournament, opposition then proved too strong, and they were turned back.

Wake Forest was again defeated, and three strong Virginia teams bowed to the Wildcats as they again hit their stride after reverses at Chapel Hill.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

COACH "Red" Laird began his second year as Freshman coach at Davidson with a large but inexperienced number of prospects for football. As a whole, the squad was also lacking in weight, a defect that proved to be very much of a drawback throughout the season.

After a comparatively formidable eleven had been rounded out, and prospects for the season were looking brighter than at first, injuries began to take their toll. This resulted in seriously crippling the Kittens' offensive, and in continuous reorganization of the squad into a machine that would run with some degree of teamwork. The latter was a most difficult task, and accounted to a great extent for the mediocrity of the season as a whole.

The Oak Ridge Cadets were encountered in the first game of the season, and continued their long winning streak over Davidson Fresh teams by downing the Kittens 32-0. The latter fought hard throughout the game, but were completely outplayed by the heavier and more experienced Cadet eleven.

The Kitten eleven showed much better form in the second contest of the year, and succeeded in holding the Wofford Freshmen to a 6-0 victory. The Davidson offensive still couldn't seem to click, but the defensive was considerably improved over that exhibited in the opening game.

Following this, Rutherford College brought a strong eleven to the Wildkittens' home field. This proved to be the best game of the year for the latter, although it resulted in a 6-6 tie. The plays of the Freshmen clicked better than any time before and they frequently threatened the visitors' goal, but were unable to deliver the final punch. Failure to take advantage of these opportunities cost the yearlings a victory; in fact, what would have been their sole win of the year.

Injuries had almost completely prohibited real teamwork by the next game and State overwhelmed the Kittens by a score of 65-0.

The season ended with another severe trouncing at the hands of Duke. This time the count was 52-0 against the Davidson eleven.

Captain Julian West and Alternate Captain Reid Brown were two of the most dependable backs on the squad, but both were lost to the team for part of the year because of injuries. Others who did consistently good work in the backfield were: Curlee, Blanton, Harrison, Harnsberger, and several others.

It's true that the linesmen were light as a whole, but their play was good and they fought hard against almost overwhelming odds at times. Morris, O'Keefe, Lynn, Slaughter, Baggett, Wootton, Wilson and others played consistently steady games throughout the year.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

ALTHOUGH failing to break even in A games won and lost the Freshman basketeers had a fairly successful season winning five tilts and losing seven.

The season was started inauspiciously losing to Salisbury High, 16-11, but recovering, Steele Creek and Salisbury were defeated in turn. Belmont Abbey's strong team won a victory on the local court and repeated the feat on their home court and the Wildkittens bowed to Charlotte High, but at this point showing much improvement they defeated Greensboro High, lost by two points to Barium Springs and handed Presbyterian Junior College a signal defeat.

Returning from a trip with the Varsity through the state, where they met defeat at the hands of the strong Carolina and N. C. State teams, the Wildkittens closed the season with a spectacular defeat of the unbeaten Charlotte High team by a score of 17-11.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

AS the Annual goes to press the Kitten nine has not had sufficient opportunity to exhibit their talent on home grounds.

The first games indicate a battery that should rank above the average in fielding and hitting ability that does justice to a Freshman nine.

Two games have been won, and two lost, with signs of improvement in the last contest played. The pitching of Koonce has been outstanding so far.

FRESHMAN TRACK

THE Freshman track squad, under the able direction of Captain Pritchett, succeeded in capturing three of its four meets by large scores.

The first of these was against Elon College on March 27th, and the final score was 75-50. The Kittens annexed nine first places to five for the visitors. Brawley, of Elon, garnered 18 points to win high scoring honors.

Catawba College was the next foe and they were downed by an even larger score of 71-45. In a dual meet the Wake Forest Fresh were overcome by a score of 74-50.

The season closed with a defeat at the hands of Charlotte Hi trackmen.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING

THE Freshman grapplers, after getting off to a bad start against Barium Springs improved steadily throughout the season and showed good form in the final match.

Those composing the squad were: Corbin of the 115-pound class; Gilmer of the 125-pound class; Casali of the 135-pound class; Hodges of the 145-pound class; Harrison of the 155-pound class; and Thompson of the 165-pound class.

A week after their first bout with Barium Springs the Wildkittens showed their improvement by trimming the Oak Ridge Cadets 18-10.

The following week the Freshman squad tied the matmen from Salisbury High in a hardfought contest. Then the season closed with another defeat by Barium Springs.

THE Y.M.C.A. at Davidson continues to be the student's closest contact with active Christian service. Each year a wider range of opportunity is opened up and the student Christian association has endeavored to meet these challenges as they have appeared.

This year the important problem of social life on the campus has received special attention. Progress has been slow because the need has been tremendous. Increased facilities for entertaining visitors and friends have been provided in the social center, although in this respect campus equipment is still sadly lacking. The student social rooms have been improved. Class and group social events have been encouraged and aided at every opportunity by the Y.M.C.A.

Perhaps no part of the work vitally affects as many of the men as deputation work, and this part of the year's program has been most successful. Hundreds of Davidson men have gone out over the state with a Gospel message, a work whose value can scarcely be estimated.

The Sunday evening vesper services have been unusually good and have given the students an excellent chance to hear some of the finest speakers obtainable. It is believed that the fall and spring evangelistic services were very helpful and inspiring. Numerous speakers were brought in during the year for talks in chapel on student problems, talks to groups on vocational guidance, and lectures on a wide variety of subjects.

Boys' work and Sunday School teaching have been active and beneficial.

Carl Pritchett, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A., has had a fine year in the first year of his office. His contagious enthusiasm for Christian service has met a fine response from the student body.

MINISTERIAL BAND

DURING the present year The Ministerial Band has followed a new plan of meeting. Instead of holding weekly meetings on Sunday afternoon, we have met monthly on some night during the week. The speakers have been men of varied occupations and have touched on very diverse and pertinent points of interest.

Our center of attention has been shifted to the spiritual, mental, and physical growth of each individual rather than the problems which will face us in the Ministry. The tendency has been toward discussion meetings with periods of question asking of well informed men such as Dr. Harris E. Kirk, of Baltimore.

The new program has proved inspiring and practical and has adjusted the activity of the Band to its proper and vital place in the lives of those students preparing for the Ministry.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER GROUP

THE Student Volunteer Group is a student organization for those who are interested in foreign missions or who intend becoming foreign missionaries. For the past year the group has met weekly on Sunday afternoons at which meetings we have had speakers talk to us along missionary lines, discussed different problems which confront us, or held purely devotional meetings.

The purpose of the Student Volunteer Group is three-fold. First, to promote interest in foreign missions on Davidson campus. Second, to learn as much as possible about the different aspects and problems actually confronted on the field, and third, to do what little we can here at home for the advancement of God's kingdom abroad.

During the year the group has tried to sponsor all missionary programs on the campus. Attractive posters have been kept on the Y.M.C.A. bulletin board. Many discussions have been held in which various problems have been studied and representatives have gone to both the state and southern mission conferences. One of the greatest works done this year was the sending of old razor blades to the Korean lepers where they are made into knives and sold. Some six hundred were collected and sent. Also approximately ninety pounds of post cards were sent to different fields for Sunday School work. We tried to keep in as close touch as possible with the fields by each week writing letters to different missionaries. Many interesting replies were received.

The officers of the Group for the past year were: William Rule, III, president; L. T. Newland, vice-president; R. C. Morrow, secretary and treasurer. Following is the list of members: W. M. Belk, F. W. Buckner, R. P. Davis, F. R. Hellegers, S. L. Hoffman, R. C. Morrow, L. T. Newland, J. K. Preston, W. Rule, F. H. Scott, J. S. Wilson, and R. E. Woodside.

DAVIDSON RHODES SCHOLARS

IN all probability Lord Cecil Rhodes, himself, did not foresee the tremendous effects which his educational endowment would have. His mind must have centered on questions of national and international importance, rather than on separate and individual schools.

Since 1904 Davidson has won six Rhodes Scholarships. Five men have already written their names high on the walls of Oxford; one is to enter that historic university in September. Dean Rusk was chosen as one of these scholars when he appeared before the District Committee in Atlanta last winter. This selection is the equivalent of being named as one of the best well-rounded men in southern institutions of higher learning. Athletics, scholarship, leadership, and social personality, all play their particular parts.

THE PUBLICATIONS BOARD

ELECTIONS to the Publications Board are made by vote of the Student Body on men nominated by the three college publications: the "Davidsonian," "Quips and Cranks," and the "Yowl." Two men are nominated by each of these three. Those nominated are usually the editor and business manager of each of the periodicals. The six nominees are presented to the Student Body, and three of the number are selected by vote to serve on the Board.

The duties of the Publications Board are extensive and very important. One of its duties is the supervision over the finances of the three publications. In order to keep watch on finances, the Board audits the monthly statements of the periodicals. Chief among the powers of the Board is its selection at the end of each year of the business managers of the "Davidsonian," of "Quips and Cranks," and of the "Yowl," from the rising Senior class. In addition to this the Board represents the college in all matters pertaining to publications.

The Publications Board for the past year was composed of A. R. Bird, Jr., W. McCutchan, and W. C. Ragin, student members. The faculty members were Mr. Jackson and Professor Fleagle, both of whom have served for the past several years. Officers of the Board were Bird, President and Ragin, Secretary.

MANAGING THE PUBLICATIONS

MAKING the ends meet is the job with which business managers of college publications must contend. From their point of view this is the most difficult of all the tasks connected with publications.

As in all businesses, the Business Manager must first get the money and then dispose of it wisely. The main sources of income are subscriptions and advertisements. The subscriptions are easily secured, as the college collects them from the students in the form of a "campus tax." Securing advertisements, on the other hand, has been a very difficult task in the past few years. Through the action of Merchants' Associations the field for securing advertisements has been greatly diminished.

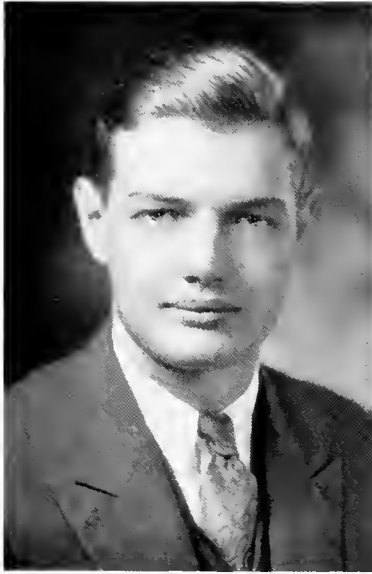

Spending the money, instead of being a pleasure, is to the Business Manager another source of worry. The money has to be spent prudently, and care must be taken to see that the budget is not exceeded. The Publications Board keeps close tab on the financial condition of the publications by a monthly report made to them by the Business Managers.

R. M. King heads the staff of the "Quips and Cranks." Through his skillful management the financial difficulties of the annual have been met and overcome. His staff consisted of J. G. Dunklin, W. W. Franklin, R. W. Gorrell, Jr., N. G. Speir, D. G. Martin and C. M. Miller.

J. A. Cannon, Business Manager of the "Davidsonian," guided the weekly newspaper successfully through the first semester, and graduating in January, left the final tasks to his Junior assistants, A. G. Montgomery and P. M. Conway.

J. H. Henderlite and his assistants are the men responsible for the financial success of the new humorous magazine, the "Yowl."

EDITING an annual is a fascinating occupation both in its pleasures and in its difficulties. First, there are the long evenings in the easy chair when the book is visioned as a whole. Come the hectic nights in the dormitory parlors when there is no heat in the office; the air is blue with smoke and thick with the remonstrances of the struggling staff penetrated by the click of many typewriters. Thus, with surprising rapidity, the book rounds into shape; the proofs are corrected and the first volume is presented for inspection.

To the staff is due a great deal of the credit for this year's Quips and Cranks. Paul Alderman, Bill Rule, Sam Wiley, Allen Whitehead, Van Middleton, and Norman Raies rendered untiring and efficient service in their departments. The rest of the staff led by these men have worked hard and consistently throughout the year. We wish to express our appreciation to the students not on the staff who helped so materially with the write-ups, to Professor Fleagle, our faculty advisor, for his interested and helpful counsel, and to Mr. Fleming and Mr. Harris of the Queen City Printing Co., and Mr. Kenneth Whitsett, and Mr. Bierman of the Charlotte Engraving Co., for their painstaking efforts.

We want to acknowledge the courtesy of the League of Nations Non-Partisan Association for the authentic picture of the new League of Nations building at Geneva for the front cover, and for other similar pictures throughout the book.

ALTHOUGH adhering to the general editorial policy of preceding years, this year's "Davidsonian" saw some decided changes in make-up and copy material. Inaugurating news bulletins from the Intercollegiate Press, it established a precedent which is expected to be followed in future editions. The title streamer was changed from Gothic to Old English type. Three regular columns increased the space devoted to local, national affairs, and humorous comments. Vereen Bell did consistently good work on the last-named column, while the other two were published anonymously.

A capable and efficient staff was formed around a nucleus of E. C. Dwelle, Jr., W.

S. Lea, and D. G. Martin, Managing Editors, and W. H. Matthews, Sports Editor. The Reporters' Club and Freshman members of the Editorial staff bore the brunt of the news writing.

For the first time since its first number in 1915, Junior Assistant Business Managers took over the active direction of this staff. J. A. Cannon, Jr., Business Manager, left the paper in excellent condition upon his completion of college work; it was taken over by P. M. Conway and A. G. Montgomery. Credit is due these three men, who successfully managed the "Davidsonian" through a depression which affected all publications to some extent.

AS may have been noticed by a very zealous reader of obituary columns, the former literary magazine, the "Chameleon," died a rather horrible death from creeping paralysis towards the end of the preceding year. However, from its ashes, like the phoenix bird of story and rhyme, the "Yowl," a professedly humorous magazine, arose and winged its flight towards the zenith with a song in its heart.

At the helm of this new project were Ragin, the editor, and Henderlite, the business manager. These men, with the aid of a very competent staff, carefully nurtured the "Yowl" through the first year of its existence. Three issues were published during this year of its debut, and received with more or less confusion by the long-suffering student body.

This magazine attempts to bring a furtive ray of sunshine into our otherwise drab lives, and at the same time to publish humor of a high and somewhat constructive type. It contains humorous plays, short stories, and short squibs, and is rather profusely illustrated by the Latin Quarter of the campus.

Although the loss of the literary magazine is still bemoaned by some and fresh wreaths are still laid on its tomb, it is felt by many that the "Yowl" has proved to be more popular than the late "Chameleon," and it is hoped that the humorous magazine will be a permanent fixture.

AS an annual publication, sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., the Wildcat Handbook is primarily an attempt to help incoming Freshmen get acquainted, in a general way, with Davidson, and more particularly, with life on the campus, as contrasted with classroom work. It was felt that the new men should have presented to them, before arriving at Davidson the type of associations they may expect to find, and the opportunities for service and extra-curricular education that will present themselves in the various phases of campus life.

Over 800 copies of the 1931 edition were printed, and about 150 mailed to this year's Freshmen during the latter part of August. The rest were distributed at the opening of school to Freshmen who had registered too late to have copies mailed to them, to the upperclassmen, and to faculty members.

The length of the book was increased to over 130 pages, due to additional advertisements, as well as material in the editorial section. More cuts were used and interfraternity and intramural sports were included in the write-ups.

In brief, the Handbook attempted to give a complete, but concise summary of each phase of life on the campus, stressing the "Y" and its work.

THE FORENSIC COUNCIL

THE Forensic Council is a student organization, acting under the supervision of the Faculty Committee on Debates, and having complete charge of the debating and declaiming activities of the school. It is composed of five members and is chosen from undergraduate members of the retiring council and varsity debating team. The members of the council for the year 1930-31 are: J. A. Jones, president; A. R. Bird, Jr., vice-president; Wm. Rule, III, secretary; P. S. Knox, treasurer; and E. D. Kuykendall, Southern secretary. The Faculty Committee consists of Professor Currie, Dr. J. M. McConnell, Dr. T. W. Lingle, Dr. C. K. Brown, Dr. W. P. Cumming, and Professor E. A. Beaty.

Davidson has been honored during the past year by being the secretary of the Dixie Debating League. This is an organization, to which many of the South's most prominent colleges and universities belong, and has as its object the promoting of debating in the South. Kuykendall has represented Davidson as secretary of this league.

The Forensic Council endeavors to promote oratorical work on the campus as well as debating and sponsors all such contests. It is also its duty to select the subject for intercollegiate debates. This year the Alpha Sigma Phi question, "Resolved, that the Nations Should Adopt a Policy of Free Trade" was used. The council also presented gold medals to each of the debaters.

DAVIDSON was represented in the first debate of the season by Powell and Matthews who met and defeated the team from Birmingham-Southern by a score of 2-1. Immediately following on a trip through Virginia they also defeated Roanoke College 3-0 and Richmond University 2-1. Their only defeat was at the hands of Wake Forest by the count of 2-1. All were affirmative debates with the exception of Roanoke.

Rule and Jones on an extended trip through the Southwest were defeated by the University of Florida 2-1. Following this a team from the University of the South was met in a no decision debate, and they won from Southwestern University by a one judge decision.

The team of Knox and Pardington debated the negative against Emory University at Spartanburg and lost by a score of 3-0. Although not the most successful forensic season that Davidson has ever enjoyed this was by no means the worst. In winning four and losing three the squad showed an ability and interest above the average and should be congratulated.

Chairmen of Program Committee
NORMAN RAIES D. F. MURPHY

THERE was a time when the literary societies were the most powerful organizations on the Davidson campus, when they exercised powers now delegated to the forensic council, the publications board, the Y.M.C.A., and even the student council. With the passing of many of its functions into the hands of other organizations, however, there came a certain diminution in membership, which was taken by casual observers to mean a lack of interest in literary society work. But after the seven lean years the seven years of plenty always come. Shorn of its other duties and consequently able to devote itself whole heartedly to the performance of its true purpose. "To promote clear thinking in writing and public speaking," the Eumenean Literary Society has taken its rightful place as an integral part of the organization which devotes itself to turning out real Christian leaders. The oldest organization on the Davidson campus, the most famous literary society in the South, Eu Society carries on in accord with its history, aims, and traditions, which are to a large extent the history and traditions of Davidson.

SHARING with its sister society the honor of being the oldest student activity founded at Davidson, the Philanthropic Literary Society has continued to hold its regular programs in its historic hall. The organization in itself is not the only point of interest surrounding the men who are members of it, for it will be recalled that it is in this room where students may see the famous Napoleonian chandelier.

For the first time since its beginning this society adopted a policy of limited membership. "Fewer men, but those who are eager and capable in literary work." has become the key-word of this group. Working in a situation which is none too favorable for the type of diversion offered, the Philanthropic Society has taken steps which will tend to lengthen the scope and influence of forensic affairs at Davidson.

Talks by Faculty Members were given a prominent place in the weekly programs along with debates, declamations, literary criticisms, and current comments.

RED AND BLACK MASQUERS

THE Red and Black Masquers, Davidson's Dramatic Club, has finished a most successful year under the guidance of J. S. Meacham.

The club presented for its fall play, A. A. Milne's "The Perfect Alibi," a de-TECTIVE story. The production was supervised by Professor E. J. Erwin of the English Department. Much of the success of the club is due to the advice and untiring efforts of Professor Erwin who has helped the club at all times.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE GLEE CLUB

THE Davidson College Glee Club stands at the head of the musical organizations of the campus and includes certain members of the other musical groups. The purpose of this organization has been to pick members of the student body who possess musical talents, both vocal and instrumental, and train them in songs and musical numbers that bring variety in the program. This was accomplished by introducing a one-act skit written by Horace Erwin which gave a touch of humor to the program. The club was also fortunate in having two radio artists, Enochs and Caligan, who gave their interpretation of the latest popular song hits. The other units in the club's make-up were a chorus of thirty men, a quartet, the Sunnyland Serenaders' orchestra, and two soloists, George Pardington and Jack Koonce. Pardington won the state Atwater-Kent audition held in November of last year.

It has been expressed by those who hear the club each year that this year's organization has proved to be the best in the history of the Glee Club. The chorus showed qualities which were the result of good training and much work. A few of the songs which the club sang were: "Going Home," from Dvorak's New World Symphony, "The Sea Song" by Gaines, "Shenandoah" by Bartholomew, and "Creation Hymn" by Beethoven.

Due to the shortage of finances the club has been unable to take any extensive trips, as has been the custom in the past, but has had to be content with making short one-night trips to towns nearby. At these places the club was well received and very favorable comments were offered by the audience.

As an organization in a school of liberal arts the Glee Club has always set as its goal the upholding, encouraging, and developing of the highest of all the arts—Music. It is its hope for the future that it may create on the campus a deeper appreciation and sympathy in this field of culture.

BATTALION STAFF

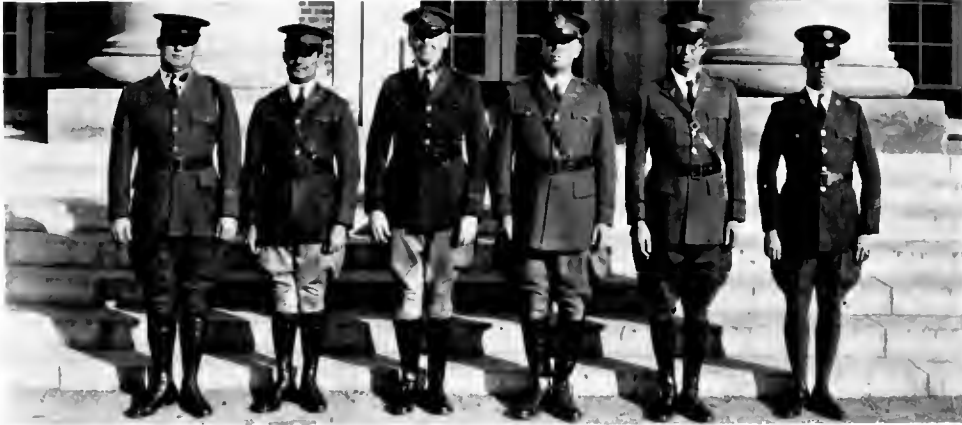

THE Davidson R.O.T.C. battalion made its appearance this year in a new uniform. Its outstanding characteristic was comfort and its most noticeable change was in providing straight trousers and roll collars. It has been heartily received by the cadets and increases the neatness and smartness of the unit considerably.

The system of promotions that was used last year was used again this year, several officers receiving higher commissions at the second semester.

With the assistance of the physical education department, intercompany athletics were introduced and proved highly successful. This program included volley ball, basketball, baseball and track.

The only change made in the staff of the P.M.S.&T. was the appointment of

The R.O.T.C. Rifle Team, captained by Cadet Lieutenant J. L. Brock, has had its most successful season. In the summer matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, two of its members won unusual distinction.

Davidson is still holding its place among the schools with units holding the distinguished rating, having been designated again this year for that distinction.

FRATERNITIES

FRATERNITY COURT

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES

THE establishment of co-operation and good will between college social fraternities and the college administration is a problem that continually faces educators and members of administrative bodies of practically every college and university in this country. Social fraternal organizations of this nature are wholly dependent upon the college or university for any sort of existence whatsoever. On the other hand, our educators have come to know, through their own experience or the experiences of others, that the college fraternity is an indispensable phase of college life in that it furnishes, on the whole, a new incentive for a higher standard in manhood, scholarship, and social adjustment.

This problem of co-operation has led administration and fraternal groups at Davidson to the adoption of a plan unique in colleges. We are familiar, more or less, with the present fraternity court plan. The plan is an experiment, the results of which can not be wholly ascertained. However, it can be said truthfully that both administration and fraternities are co-operating in an endeavor to make the social fraternity a greater asset to the college, the student body, and to the individual who may be affiliated with a fraternity. Adjustments must be made and are being made as fast as time and course of events will permit.

The results of three years' work have so far been satisfactory, and the social experiment at Davidson, guided by wisdom and followed out with patience, will, no doubt, afford a solution which will bring to the campus a fraternity situation of which Davidson College may well be proud.

You won't throw a fit, when you hear the price OF HANES UNDERWEAR

Some underwear takes your bankroll for a ride. But not Hanes Summer Underwear! It's only 50c to $1.50. And whether you're built like a barrel or a bean-pole, you cut a good figure in Hanes. The sizes are actually right! Hanes holds its shape, and stands the tug-o'-wear, too. You'll know that, months from now!

Take hold of Hanes. Give it the old eagle-eye. Look at the seams. Feel the material. Test and try the buttons.

You'll see in an instant that Hanes Underwear isn't just slapped together!

Now pull a shirt over your head . . . jump into a pair of shorts . . . button up, and look in a mirror. Notice the shirt across your chest, and down under the arms. It's as smooth as a drum head. Now bend your knees. Kick your legs. Lean forward, backward, and to the sides. Nothing grips. Nothing rips! Yet there isn't a bit of excess.

Success in Life

Depends on a number of things—and one of these factors which cannot be overlooked is appearance! The expression "Clothes Make the Man" may be slightly exaggerated! But it is certainly to be considered.

... And when you are considering your clothes remember EFIRD'S FEATURES A COMPLETE LINE OF SMART HABERDASHERY as well as FASHION PARK, LEBO BROS. and other well known brands of good clothes.

THE TRUE ATMOSPHERE OF SCHOOL AND COLLEGE

WE endeavor, in producing school annuals, to render a helpful and constructive service directed toward enabling a student staff to get out a representative, distinctive book within their budget.

In connection with our new and modern printing plant we maintain a large Art and Service Department where page borders, cover designs, division pages, and complete decorative and illustrative motifs are created and worked out.
